Golf Tournament Scores Big for the Carleton Place Hospital

The organizing committee for the 8th Annual Bed Pan Classic Golf Tournament and Auction is thrilled to announce that the golf tournament, held on June 21, has raised $33,544.71 in support of the Carleton Place & District Memorial Hospital (CPDMH) Foundation. The funds raised will be used to help purchase a new sterilizer for the Hospital's Central Processing and Sterilization Area.

“With the funds raised at this year’s tournament, the Bed Pan Classic has provided more $200,000 to the Hospital for new equipment since its beginning. We are very excited to have reached this milestone and I would like to thank the organizing committee for their help and contribution to the Bed Pan Classic,” stated Chantelle Troy, Manager/Community Relations Officer of the CPDMH Foundation. “We had an amazing tournament and on behalf of the Foundation, I would like to
