State Farm Agent Donates to Carleton Place Hospital

Hailey Lumsden, State Farm Customer Service Representative, and Jeff Julian, State Farm Agent with a donation cheque for the CPDMH Foundation

The Carleton Place & District Memorial Hospital (CPDMH) Foundation is pleased to announce that State Farm Agent, Jeff Julian, has donated $150.00 to the ongoing equipment needs of the hospital. The funds donated are the proceeds of a the grand opening barbeque held at Mr. Julian's State Farm office in Carleton Place on May 31 of this year.

“State Farm’s priority is to be like a good neighbour and the company helps improve the quality of life in the communities where its associates live and work”, stated Jeff Julian. “I am very happy to support the hospital because it is one of the cornerstones of our community and like State Farm, I believe it’s important to give back to the community that supports our business”.

“On behalf of the Foundation I would like to thank Mr. Julian for his donation to our organization”, said Sylvie Powell, President of the CPDMH Foundation. “The continued support of our neighbours such as Mr. Julian will ensure that the hospital is equipped to meet the health care needs of the community for years to come.”

Mr. Julian has been in the insurance business for approximately 20 years and his new office is located at 376 Flora Street. He is very pleased to be associated with State Farm because of the company’s focus on customer service and its philosophy that states insurance coverage should be obtained at a fair price coupled with a fair claim settlement.

“I am very happy to be working with State Farm because the company always puts the customer first,” continued Mr. Julian. “This recent donation to the hospital is our first step in proving that we will be a good neighbour and involved in the community whenever we can.”
