Carleton Place Hospital Foundation receives gift from Tubman Funeral Homes

The Carleton Place & District Memorial Hospital (CPDMH) Foundation is pleased to announce that it has received a gift of $4200 from Tubman Funeral Homes and Cremation. The gift was presented by Julie Tubman, President of Tubman Funeral Homes, to incoming President Norma Hamilton during the CPDMH Foundation's 15th Annual General Meeting. The gift will be used to purchase much needed new medical equipment for the Hospital.

“As a former Chair of CHEO and Chair of Roger’s House I have a tremendous respect for the hard work Foundations do on behalf of their Hospitals. I know your volunteer Board of Directors work tirelessly to raise funds in support of better healthcare for your community”, stated Jul Tubman. She also stated how pleased she was to be able to present the cheque so as to assist the Hospital to meet it’s objectives to provide enhanced medical care for the community.

“This is a wonderful donation from Tubman’s that will assist our Hospital in providing quality care to all our patients”, stated Norma Hamilton, incoming President of the CPDMH Foundation. “On behalf of the CPDMH Foundation and the patients who will benefit from your generosity, I would like offer my sincere appreciation to Julie and Tubman Funeral Homes for this gift.”

“We would like to thank everyone for welcoming us once again so warmly to Carleton Place and the area”, continued Ms. Tubman. “We made this gift to the Hospital as we recognize how important the Carleton Place Hospital is to the families we care for as well as to our staff who live and work in the community.”

Tubman Funeral Homes was established in 1925 in the village of Ashton and is now in its’ third generation as a family-owned business. In October 2006, Tubmans returned to its’ roots near Ashton when the company purchased the Kerry Funeral Homes in Carleton Place and Almonte.
