The Bowes Brothers will be Home for Christmas

The Carleton Place & District Memorial Hospital (CPDMH) Foundation is pleased to announce that the Bowes Brothers will be reviving its Home for Christmas concert on December 5 at the Carleton

Place Arena. The concert will once again be sponsored by the Alan R. Barker Funeral Home resulting in 100% of the tickets sales being directed to the Hospital.

“Last year we decided to take a break from our Home for Christmas concert but we did miss the performance and thought it would be too good to bring it back this year,” stated John Bowes. “It’s always great to play for the hometown crowd and we are extremely happy that 100% of the ticket sales will be used to help the Hospital provide great healthcare to our friends and family”

This will be the fourth time that the Funeral Home has sponsored the Bowes Brothers Christmas concert held on the Hospital’s behalf. The previous three concerts, held in December 2006, ‘07 and ‘08, have raised over $19,000 to purchase new equipment for the Hospital. This year the concert will have a special meaning because November 1st, 2010 marks the 60th Anniversary of the Alan R. Barker Funeral Home.

“Since we will be recognizing the 60th Anniversary of the Alan R. Barker Funeral Home we wanted to once again partner with the Bowes Brothers to host this concert on the Hospital’s behalf,” stated Wayne Bennett. “The Hospital has always been on the top of our list of charities and we are very appreciative of the community’s support of the Bowes Brothers Home for Christmas concerts.”

“The Foundation is extremely happy to see the return of The Bowes Brothers Home for Christmas to our Christmas schedule and we know it will be a very entertaining evening,” stated Spencer Grabe, CPDMH Foundation President. “We would like to thank Edith, Wayne and John at the Alan R. Barker Funeral Home for sponsoring this event again and offer our congratulations on reaching the important milestone of 60 years in business.”

The Home for Christmas concert will begin at 7 pm in the Upper Hall of the Carleton Place Arena. In addition to the Bowes Brothers, the evening will feature special guests Dave Brown and Arlene Quinn. Tickets for the event are $15 each and can be purchased at the Alan R. Barker Funeral Home (613-257-3113), Remembrance Gift Shop (613-257-3931), and CPDMH Foundation Office (613-257-2200 ext 856).
