Carleton Place happy to have the Bowes Brothers ‘Home for Christmas’

The Carleton Place & District Memorial Hospital (CPDMH) Foundation is pleased to announce that the Bowes Brothers ‘Home for Christmas’ concert held on December 5, was a huge hit. The event, sponsored by the Alan R. Barker Funeral Home, was a sell-out and raised $6548 for the Foundation.

“We were thrilled when Edith, Wayne and John told us they wanted to host the ‘Home for Christmas’ concert on our behalf and I would like to thank the Alan R. Barker Funeral Home for sponsoring this event,” stated Chantelle Troy, Manager/Community Relations Officer of the CPDMH Foundation. “The Bowes Brothers are always entertaining and we are really grateful that the proceeds from the event were directed to the Foundation.”

involve the crowd in the show and I would like to thank everyone who has come out to see us play,” stated John Bowes. “Our family is very proud that we have been able to help raise this money for the Hospital because with four boys in the family, there have been occasions when we have needed the Emergency Room.”

“Performing in Carleton Place is always fun for us because we get to

This was the fourth time that the Alan R. Barker Funeral Home has sponsored this event and in its four years the concert has raised $25,657.25. In addition to the Bowes Brothers, the recent concert featured special guests Dave Brown and Arlene Quinn and a 50/50 draw organized by the Carleton Place & District Civitans. The raffle raised $338 for the Foundation.

“This year marked the 60th Anniversary of our Funeral Home and we decided to host this concert on behalf of the Foundation as part of our celebrations”, stated Edith Addyman of the Alan R. Barker Funeral Home. “We are very pleased the concert was well received by the community and we would like to thank everyone who helped make the event a success.”
