We plan on making this event an annual event on our calendar and we are looking forward to an even better year in 2012.”

“This was an absolutely wonderful evening and I would like to thank the approximately 180 people who bought tickets and come out in support of the Fashion Show,” stated Jean Jones, President of the CPDMH Auxiliary. “I would also like to extend my gratitude to the committee who organized the event as well as the ladies who modelled the clothes from Bonnie's.”

The Auxiliary is now planning for its Christmas Bake Sale which will be held on Saturday December 3 in the Moore House at 170 Bridge Street from 9:00 a.m. until noon. All items available for purchase at the sale will be made by members of the Auxiliary.
