Support from Volleyball Tournament Not Too Bad!

The Carleton Place & District Memorial Hospital (CPDMH) Foundation is pleased to announce that it has received a gift of $1000 from the 8th Annual Not-Too-Bawd Volleyball Tournament. The funds will be used to help purchase new equipment for the Emergency Department.

“The Not-2-Bawd Volleyball Tournament has been a part of our summer calendar for the last 8 years and we are so appreciative of the ongoing support we receive from the event,” stated

Chantelle Troy, Manager/Community Relations Officer of the CPDMH Foundation. “I would like to thank Steph for once again including us in her planning and I wish her a lot of success with the 9th Annual Not-2-Bawd Volleyball Tournament.”

CPDMH Nurses, Jennifer Lindsay, Mark Gormley and Lindsay Scollan, accepting the proceeds of the 8th Annual Not - 2 - Bawd Volleyball Tournament from Steph Scollan, the Event Organizer.

Since the start of the Not-Too-Bawd Volleyball Tournament, CPDMH has received over $12,000 from the event to help with medical equipment purchases. In addition to the gift to the Hospital, the tournament will once again be able to give a bursary to a graduating volleyball player of the Carleton Place High School. The bursary will be awarded to a student who exhibits financial need and best exemplifies team spirit, leadership and camaraderie.

“I am so pleased that we have been able to maintain our support of both the Hospital and the bursary established by the tournament last year,” stated Steph Scollan, Organiser of the 8th Annual Not-2-Bawd Volleyball Tournament. “We had another great day and I would like to thank everyone who contributed to the success of the event and all the players who participated in the tournament. We look forward to seeing you again next year!”

The CPDMH Foundation and the organizers of the 8th Annual Not-2-Bawd Volleyball Tournament would like to thank the following businesses for providing prizes and their help in making the event a success:
